“ People who know Stuart from his time on the streets or when he was in addiction can see a changed life in front of them.

This is real change and it's what we are all about at Glasgow City Mission.”

Simon → Stuart → others

Stuart has experienced homelessness, addiction and prison. Now he has his own flat, is free from drugs and is making a difference to others.

Stuart has started a paid internship at Glasgow City Mission, with Simon, Assistant Project Manager, supporting him. Stuart says, "I left rehab just over eight months ago. I was homeless and had no prospects. Glasgow City Mission took a chance on me and let me volunteer."

Stuart helps at the Drop-ins, spending time with the guests that come in. He says, "I love it – someone gave me that chance and I can give that to them and a bit of hope."

"Simon is my boss for the internship – with that I will get 21 hours paid work and my SVQ level 3. I've got a job at the Glasgow Winter Night Shelter. I've got my own tenancy for the first time in 42 years. Everything is going well. Two boys came back this week – one who is now five months clean and one who has been clean for nine days. I had spoken to them and told them about their options."

Simon says, "Stuart has been trusted with responsibility which has literally lifted his head high and made him smile. He is amazing at getting alongside guests. People who know him from his time on the streets can see a changed life in front of them."

Change a life this Christmas

With your help we can work with more people such as Stuart, who in turn can work with and inspire others.

£8

For £8 you can provide a delicious three course Christmas dinner and great company. This can be an especially tough time of year for our guests.

£25

For £25 you can provide one-to-one support for a guest for a week – helping our guests with their individual needs.

It all starts with building relationships – over Christmas dinner or at one of our Drop-ins. From here we can offer one-to-one support and signpost guests to our daytime activities designed to help them grow in confidence and move forwards in their lives.
