

Prayer news: December 2018

Thank you for praying for our city and for people affected by homelessness and poverty this Christmas season.

City Centre

- Give thanks that through our street outreach we are building trust with men and women who are street homeless. One of the people who we have known for many years and often connect with on the streets came to the Gathering - our weekly interactive church service - which he participated in.
- Please pray for one of our guests who is in hospital. Give thanks that they are improving and that Project Workers have been able to visit. Pray for their family.
- Give thanks for God's perfect provision – we prayed with one of our guests that they would receive the household items they needed, and within an hour someone had offered these items. This helped confirm to him that God is real and answers prayer.
- This can be a particularly difficult time of year for our guests, please do keep them in your prayers over the Christmas period.

Child and Family Centre, Govan

- Please pray that the Christmas meal we are organizing for the parents who come to our weekly coffee morning will be a blessing to them amidst what can be a stressful time. Please pray we will be able to adequately support the families we work with.
- The eight-week parenting course we run in partnership with NSPCC has gone well. Please pray that parents will sign up to the next course which will start in January. Pray that these courses will be of benefit to the whole family.

Glasgow Winter Night Shelter

- Already we are seeing answers to prayer with guests being found suitable accommodation. Give thanks for this and pray that it will continue. The night shelter only provides emergency, temporary accommodation and it is always our hope that guests will move on quickly to the accommodation to which they are entitled.
- Pray for the team of staff and volunteers as they learn the ropes and adjust to working night shifts.

Monthly prayer time

You are invited to join us at our city centre project on the second Saturday of each month for a prayer time. The next meeting will be on Saturday 8 December at 2.30pm.
